WEC International in Canada

We are an international, evangelical faith mission. WEC International (Worldwide Evangelization for Christ) is a member of the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada.

All accounts are reviewed periodically by our Board of Directors and are audited by an external professional accountant appointed by the Board. The audited annual financial statements are available upon request.

Spending of funds is confined to programs and projects approved by the organization. Each restricted contribution donated toward such an approved program or project will be used as restricted by the donor with the understanding that when the need for such a program or project has been met, or cannot be completed for any reason as determined by the organization, the remaining restricted contributions will be used where needed most.

No fees are deducted for administration or sending base expenses. We trust the Lord to supply for all our sending base expenses just as we trust Him for our overseas expenses.

We respect personal privacy and will only hold information necessary for our records. We do not disclose this information to others. You may view your complete Privacy Policy on:
www.wec-canada.org.

If you have further questions about the financial policy of WEC International or about the financial situation of any WEC worker, please contact the Treasurer at our Canadian headquarters.

GIVING TO MISSION

OUR FINANCES EXPLAINED

"Just before we left Canada,
our pledged support was rather low. We and WEC
had faith for our departure,
and we haven't been in need since!"

Matthew & Allysha

"I know no greater joy or peace than to be doing the will of God. I cannot thank enough, those who allow me to continue this work through their prayers
and support."

Frequently asked Questions

I am interested in mission but can not go myself. How can I help?

There are many like you! Giving of your time, talents and resources is a way of being involved. If you want to give financially, you can support ministries.

How might my money be used when I support a WEC missionary?

Doing ministry can be expensive! A new worker, for example, has airfares, initial set-up costs, language lessons, as well as basic food and rent—these are just a few areas where support is needed.

I would like my gift to have a more direct link to evangelistic outreach to establishing the local church. Is this possible?

Yes! Your gift can help provide teaching resources, medical supplies, building materials or funding for vocational training centres—these are a few of the many ways we reach out with the gospel.

If I give a one-time gift, does that mean I will be inundated with literature pleading for funds?

No! You'll be pleased to know that WEC International has a policy of not soliciting for funds. We are a faith mission—that means trusting God to supply for our needs. We only share our needs if people who want to partner with us ask for information.

How much of my financial gift will be deducted for administrative costs?

More good news! None! All donations will be forwarded without any deductions. Just one qualification: if you donate by credit card, the charges we incur from the credit card company will be deducted from the missionary's gift. These charges are normally less than 4%.

Does WEC International issue tax-deductible receipts?

Yes, for all contributions except personal gifts such as for Christmas or birthdays. We do issue acknowledgements to churches or other charities who forward money through us. Receipts are issued with each contribution except for pre-authorized donations, for which one receipt is issued at the end of the calendar year.

How do I give to WEC?

Choose the method that suits you best as outlined below. Include a separate memo indicating the ministry or project that you have an interest in. Please do not write a designation on the cheque itself.

Please note that while WEC has co-labourers from many countries, we are only authorized to issue a tax-deductible receipt for donations to workers or projects under the administration of our Canadian office.

If you wish to give by internet, go to CanadaHelps.org. They do take 3.9% from your gift to cover the banking charges and their administration. They accept payment by InterAct, Credit Card or Pay Pal. Be sure your gift falls within the above guidelines.

Ways to give:

- Send cheques periodically or regularly
- Send a series of post-dated cheques
- Phone in a credit card donation
- Join the pre-authorized donation program
- Remember WEC in your estate planning
- Go to CanadaHelps.org and enter WEC into the search box, then follow the links.

Cheques should be made payable to WEC International.

Please do not enter the designation on the cheque but use a separate note.

Further to authorization

I may revoke my authorization at any time, subject to providing notice of 10 days. To obtain a sample cancellation form, or for more information on my right to cancel a PAD agreement, I may contact my financial institution or visit www.cdnpay.ca.
